

TREVOR STEWART

background

Trevor Stewart is one of the premier off-road motocross racers in the world. A two-time National Champion and a major figure bridging the gap between motocross, youth culture, and fashion, he also fits the mould of a traditional model with the added charisma of a professional athlete.

Taking inspiration from the fusion of skating and fashion pioneered by Virgil Abloh in the mid-to-late 2010s, Trevor is the face of the emergence of motocross as a vessel for brand engagement and style revolution. While he rides slightly under the radar in terms of virality, some of the most sought-after creatives in the world have shown interest in working with Trevor.

Biography

The creative director of Alyx and Givenchy has built a cult following by merging street culture aesthetics with practical garment construction in a luxury streetwear label, garnering global stockists from Dover Street Market and Selfridges to Ssense.

The Chicago-born creative director grew up surrounded by Californian skate culture. He established himself by working as a creative director for Lady Gaga and collaborating with

Re: 1017 ALYX 9SM (by Matthew Williams) FW22 Show January 14 / Trevor Stewart

Hi Brandon,

Is there anything we can do? Where is his practice on the 15th? Landing at 11.50 AM at LAX on the 15th won't work?

Matt really wants to include Trevor.

Thanks,
Samuel

Trevor Stewart is pretty darn good on a motorcycle. Winner of both the 2018 and 2019 Big 6 National Grand Prix Championships, Stewart has cemented himself as a staple in the off-road racing scene. But just as intriguing as his racing credentials is Stewart himself; his lean figure and sharp features wouldn't look out of place in a runway show, and his interest in modern culture and his willingness to get a little weird with his personal style has started to earn him a reputation both in and out of the motorsports world. "I get a little bit of hate from people in the scene

HOW TREVOR STEWART IS THE NEW FACE OF RACING

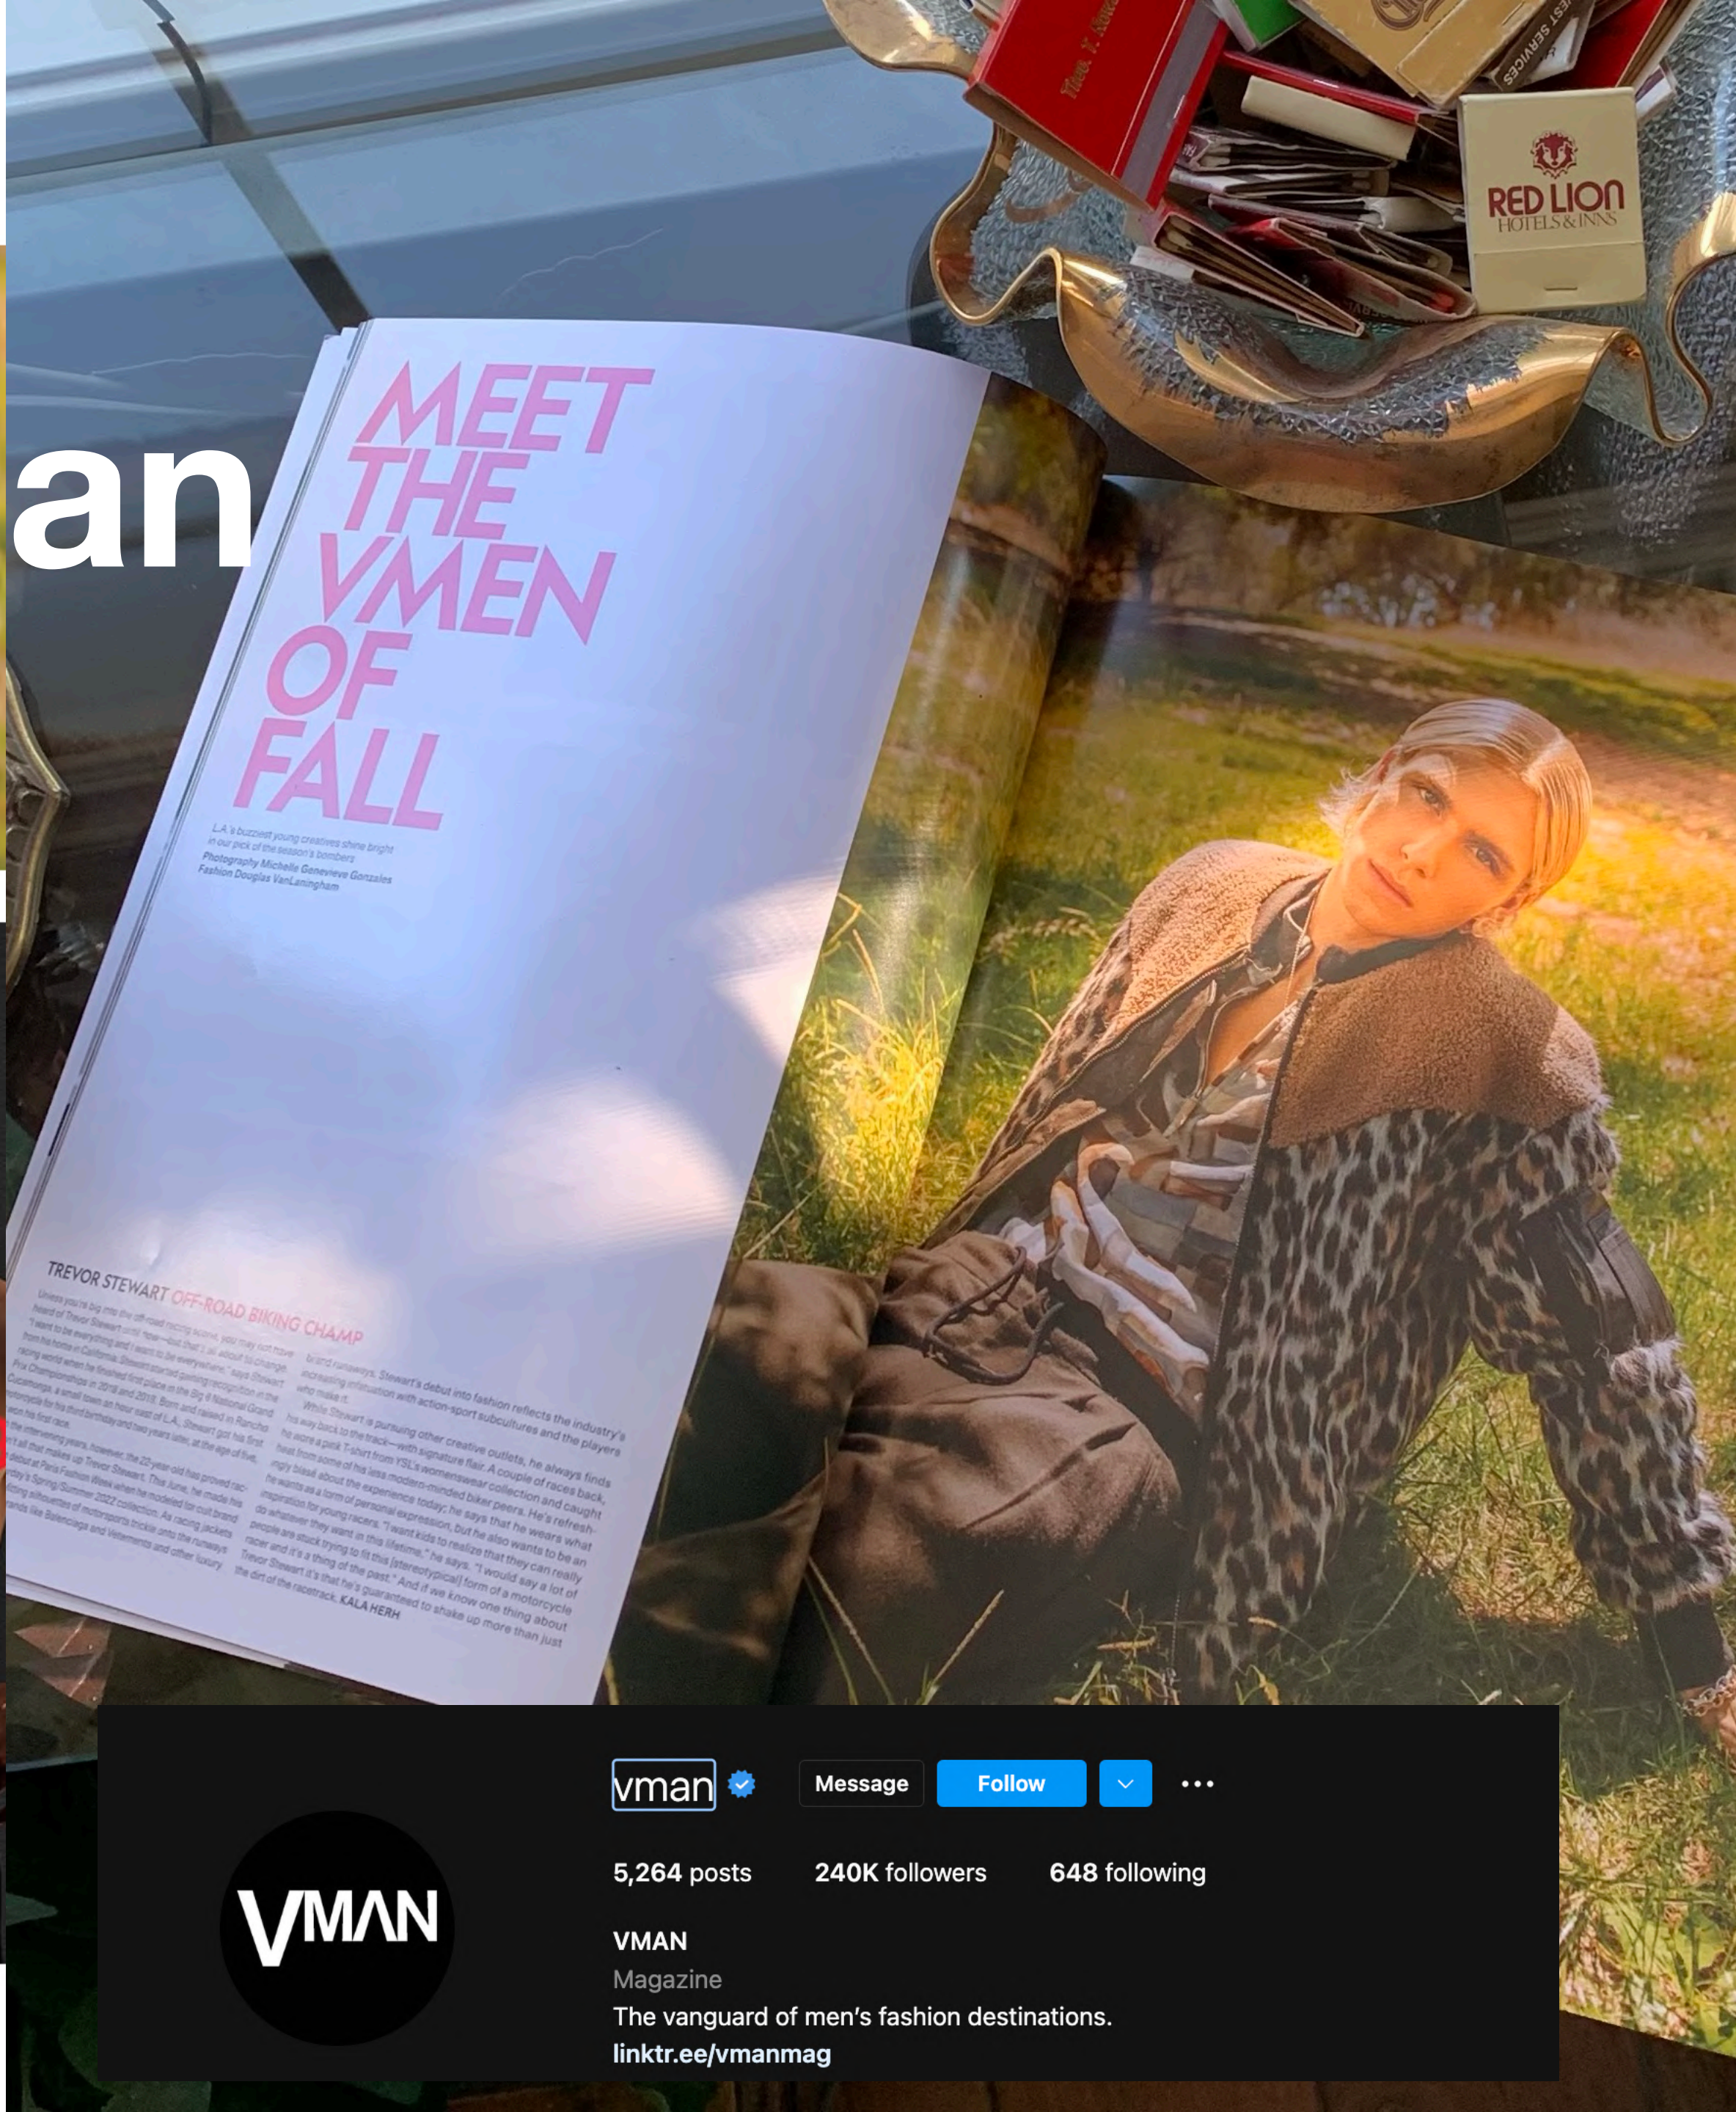

The California native shares his plan to shake up the traditional notions of racing – as well as the outfits he plans to do them in.

TREVOR STEWART OFF-ROAD BIKING CHAMP

Unless you're big into the off-road racing scene, you may not have heard of Trevor Stewart until now—that's what he's all about to change. "I want to be everything and I want to be everywhere," says Stewart, who makes it.

Stewart's debut into fashion reflects the industry's increasing information with action-sport subcultures and the players who make it.

While Stewart is pursuing other creative outlets, he always finds his way back to the track—with signature flair. A couple of races back, he wore a pink "short" from YSL's womenswear collection and caught heat from some of his less-modern-minded biker peers. He's refreshingly blasé about the experience today; he says that he wears what he wants as a form of personal expression, but he also wants to be an inspiration for young racers. "I want kids to realize that they can really do whatever they want in this lifetime," he says. "I would say a lot of people are stuck trying to fit this [stereotypical] form of a motorcycle racer and it's a thing of the past." And if we know one thing about Trevor Stewart it's that he's guaranteed to shake up more than just the dirt of the racetrack. KALA HERH

Okay, so you grew up in Colby and you work at the Bike Shop. What else? We've been talking about me this whole time.

ELI
You're more interesting than I am.

AUDEN
Stop deflecting.

ELI
What do you wanna know?

She thinks about asking about Abe, but she's not brave enough to go there yet.

AUDEN
Literally anything!

ELI
Alright, well, family wise, it's kinda like the exact opposite of your situation. We had the house everyone in the neighborhood flocked to.

AUDEN
I bet you had really good snacks.

ELI
Honestly? Yeah. My mom's pizza wraps are legendary.

AUDEN
That sounds fun.

ELI
It was. But. I dunno sometimes it seems like all I've ever done is goof off. I even made a career of it. I mean, for a minute.

AUDEN
How so?

Just like. Bike stuff. Whatever.

ELI
And now it's like, what did it all add up to? Some grainy clips on YouTube and a bunch of stupid stories?

AUDEN
I thought stupid stories were the whole point. I mean, isn't that what we're doing here?

ELI
Yeah, I dunno.

Maybe they are, maybe a bunch of stupid stories are better than wondering what if?

I think everyone deserves a do-over if they want it. I wish I could have a do-over.

This is it. She thinks he's going to tell her his secret.

Trevor's dream is to continue to blend the worlds of motocross and fashion while pursuing a World title in racing. He wants to become the face of a movement that inspires a drastic change in cultural significance to the once niche community of motocross.

He is eager to grow his brand and his image to create a real avenue for unique content rarely seen before, and is open to any work that is valuable in progressing that goal.
